3.2.1 Leadership styles

Unit 3.2 Managers, leadership and decision making · 8 key points

- Autocratic: leader decides alone and tells staff
- Paternalistic: leader decides in what they believe is the staff's best interest
- Democratic: staff are consulted and involved in decisions
- Laissez-faire: leader sets broad goals and leaves staff to decide
- Influences on style: leader's personality, staff skills, urgency, task, risk, size and culture of the business
- Autocratic works best: in a crisis or with unskilled staff
- Democratic works best: with skilled staff when there is time to consult
- Trap: no style is always best
